

Corporate Sponsorship

Benefits of Sponsorship

The Nashville Chapter reaches professionals and employers throughout the Middle Tennessee area. Our audience includes professionals within our chapter, other local professional associations, and non-members who attend our successful educational events. In addition, we participate in many community service activities which help to distinguish AGA.

The Nashville Chapter's educational events are considered the best economical value for financial management professionals in the area. We offer luncheons, workshops, and seminars.

Sponsorship Levels

Bronze Level - $500 – $999

- Recognition on the chapter website with a link to your organization
- Recognition in the chapter monthly newsletter, Nashville Notes
- Verbal acknowledgement during the opening general session at designated events
- Opportunity to distribute literature about your company and/or provide nominal giveaways to designated event participants

Silver Level - $1,000 – $1,499

- Recognition on the chapter website with a link to your organization
- Recognition in the chapter monthly newsletter, Nashville Notes
- Verbal acknowledgement during the opening general session at designated events
- Opportunity for your company representative to give brief welcoming remarks at designated events
- Opportunity to distribute literature about your company and/or provide nominal giveaways to designated event participants
- A complimentary registration at the Annual Winter Seminar

Gold Level - $1,500 – $2,000

- Recognition on the chapter website with a link to your organization
- Recognition in the chapter monthly newsletter, Nashville Notes

- Verbal acknowledgement during the opening general session at designated events
- Opportunity for your company representative to present on a current topic at the Annual Winter Seminar.
- Opportunity to man a booth and distribute literature about your company and/or provide nominal giveaways to designated event participants
- A complimentary registration at the Annual Winter Seminar.

If you are interested in contributing and do not see an option above that would you're your company, feel free to reach out to us. We would be happy to discuss further options!

